

Florida Commission on Human Relations
FY 2021-2022 Regulatory Plan

Pursuant to section 120.74(1), Florida Statutes, the Florida Commission on Human Relations (FCHR) presents its FY 2021-2022 regulatory plan. The FCHR has the power to adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind rules to effectuate the purposes and policies of the Florida Civil Rights Act of 1992, the Whistle-blower's Act, the Florida Fair Housing Act, and to govern the proceedings of the commission in accordance with chapter 120.

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(a), Florida Statutes, the FCHR reports that there were no laws enacted or amended during the previous 12 months which create or modify the duties or authority of the FCHR.

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(b), Florida Statutes, below is a listing of each rule not otherwise listed pursuant to paragraph (a), which the FCHR expects to implement by rulemaking before July 1, 2022, except emergency rulemaking. For each law listed, the plan states whether the rulemaking is intended to simplify, clarify, increase efficiency, improve coordination with other agencies, reduce regulatory costs, or delete obsolete, unnecessary, or redundant rules:

Rule	Reason for Rulemaking
60Y-3.001	Clarify
60Y-5.001	Clarify
60Y-7.001	Increase efficiency

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(c), Florida Statutes, the FCHR reports that it is not planning to update its prior year's regulatory plan.

CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(d), Florida Statutes, the undersigned hereby certifies that:

- (1) This plan has been reviewed by both the agency head and the individual acting as principal legal advisor to the agency head; and

(2) The Florida Commission on Human Relations regularly reviews all its rules to determine if the rules remain consistent with the agency's rulemaking authority and the laws implemented, and most recently completed this review in July 2021.
