

Florida Commission on Human Relations
FY 2020-2021 Regulatory Plan

Pursuant to section 120.74(1), Florida Statutes, the Florida Commission on Human Relations (FCHR) presents its FY 2020-2021 regulatory plan. The FCHR has the power to adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind rules to effectuate the purposes and policies of the Florida Civil Rights Act of 1992 and the Florida Fair Housing Act and to govern the proceedings of the commission in accordance with chapter 120.

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(a), Florida Statutes, below is a listing of each law enacted or amended during the previous twelve months which creates or modifies the duties or authority of the FCHR:

Law enacted or amended	Is rulemaking necessary to implement the law?	Written explanation why the law may be implemented without rulemaking	Has rule development notice been published?	Citation to the notice of rule development in the FAR?	Expected date to publish the notice of proposed rule
2020-076	Yes	N/A	No	N/A	3/12/2021
2020-153	Yes	N/A	No	N/A	2/19/2021
2020-164	No	The amendment clarifies a complainant's right to commence a civil action regardless of filing a complaint with the FCHR under section 760.34(1), Fla. Stat., and regardless of the status of any such complaint. Rule 60Y-7.001 already specifies that section 760.34 is neither an obstacle nor a prerequisite to commence a civil action under the Florida Fair Housing Act.	N/A	N/A	N/A

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(b), Florida Statutes, below is a listing of each law not otherwise listed pursuant to paragraph (a), which the FCHR expects to implement by rulemaking before the following July 1, except emergency rulemaking. For each law listed, the plan states whether the rulemaking is intended to simplify, clarify, increase efficiency, improve coordination with other agencies, reduce regulatory costs, or delete obsolete, unnecessary, or redundant rules:

Rule	Reason for Rulemaking
60Y-5.004(6)	Update & correction
60Y-5.006(4)	Update & delete outdated information

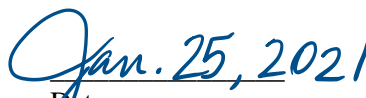

Pursuant to section 120.74(1)(c), Florida Statutes, the FCHR reports that it is not planning to update its prior year's regulatory plan.
